Local Students Attend Occupational Therapists Advocacy Day

Jefferson City, Missouri - On Wednesday, February 22, 2017 local students traveled to Jefferson City for an advocacy day for Occupational Therapists and students in that field.

"I was lucky enough to speak with these young ladies about their goals as therapists and how the legislature can support them," commented 151st State Representative Tila Hubrecht.

Pictured with Tila Hubrecht is Morgan Cliff of Dexter, Tiffany Wilcox of Advance, Erika Medlin of Scott City, and Jennifer Cook of Glen Allen.
