In Memory of Elsie Etta Temples

Elsie Etta Temples, the daughter of Walter Linvill White and Rosa Elizabeth Moore White, was born near Pyletown in rural Dexter, Missouri on February 27, 1922. She departed this life at Cypress Point Skilled Nursing Facility in Dexter, Missouri on March 17, 2018 at the age of 96 years.

She was united in marriage to Kenneth “Short” Temples on January 29, 1941 in Dexter, Missouri. To this union, two sons were born. Short preceded her in death on April 6, 1992.

Mrs. Temples was a lifelong Stoddard County resident and member of Pleasant Grove Church near Pyletown.

Surviving Mrs. Temples are her two sons, Garry Joe (Peggy) Temples of Bernie, Missouri, and Kenneth Leon (Janis) Temples of Hartselle, Alabama. Other survivors include four grandchildren: Lisa Turner of Bernie, Missouri, Tim Temples of Dexter, Missouri, Kevin Temples of Harvest, Alabama and Kelly Haws of Brentwood, Tennessee. Eight great-grandchildren also survive, as well as special nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Temples was preceded in death by her husband, parents, sisters and brothers. Siblings included Earl White, Pearl Lawrence, Willard White, Dorothy Riddle, Lee White and Norma Jean Ashabranner.

Services will be held on Tuesday, March 20th at Rainey Mathis Funeral Home in Bernie, Missouri, with visitation at 11:00 a.m. and funeral following at 1:00 p.m. Burial will take place at Sycamore Cemetery near Pyletown. Rainey-Mathis Funeral Home in charge of all arrangements.
