Waldner Places First, Bearcats Finish 6th at SEMO Wrestling Conference

Farmington, Missouri - Snow and ice along with hazardous road conditions prompted SEMO Regional Conference Tournament officials to schedule matches earlier than originally planned on Friday, January 18th and Saturday, January 19th in Farmington, Missouri. Potosi elected not to travel on Saturday due to the road surfaces becoming more and more dangerous.

Schools who participated included Poplar Bluff, Cape Central, Dexter, Farmington, Jackson, New Madrid, North County, Notre Dame, Sikeston, Ste. Genevieve, and Windsor.

The Dexter Bearcats finished 6th in the tournament with 391 points. Jackson won the team championship with a combined 610.5 points, Farmington was second with 467.5 points, Sikeston was third with 416.5 points and Poplar Bluff was fourth with 408 points.

Junior Travis Waldner (DEX) finished first in the 138 lb weight class.

Mason Keena (DEX) finished second in the 145 lbs weight class.

Jett Featherston (DEX) finished second in the 195 lb weight class.
