Ida raised her family in Poplar Bluff, MO and was an active volunteer in the community.

While raising her family Ida was a very active member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church serving on many different boards and committees of the church. She was active in Birthright. She was the director of the Child Concern Center and sat on their board for many years. Ida also spent many years volunteering at St. Vincent DePaul Food Bank. In 1986, after many years of baking in her home and with a desire to be a financial support to her children's college educations she started her own bakery, The Rowland Stollen. Ida's hard work made this business a great success and asset to the community. Mom's greatest joy was our family. Our family would like to give special thanks to Diane Vert for the many years of love and care she gave to our mom.

Arrangements will be conducted by Amick-Burnett Funeral Chapels. Visit our website at amick-burnettfuneralchapels.com for online condolences.
