Dexter Police Dept Honors Retiring Chief Trevor Pulley at Luncheon
Dexter, MO - Newly appointed Dexter Police Chief Hank Trout held a luncheon on Friday, April 16, 2021 for the Dexter Police Department.

Randy Kinder Excavating provided the meal to the police officers and the food was catered by Dhafer's Steakhouse & Fine Dining in Dexter.

Newly appointment Chief Hank Trout presented retiring Chief Trevor Pulley with a plaque.

"I want to start by saying congratulations to Trevor Pulley, as he has now been appointment the new Dexter City Administrator," stated Chief Hank Trout.

"I also want to thank him for having the confidence in me to lead this department, thank you Trevor," continued Trout.

Chief Trout described Trevor as dedicated, hard-working, professional, intelligent, confent, self motivated, and a family man.

"If you strive to be a good officer or leader, you can look at Trevor's character and his work ethic and if you work as hard as he does, you will be successful," stated Trout.

"Trevor Pulley had a vision to make the Dexter Police Department better. He did more in the past three years than most have done in the past twenty years."

He upgraded the computers and made sure the new records management system was up and running with the help of Josh Benton. He updated the Dispatch Center and he had the new squad room added so the officers had the room needed to help make their daily tasks achievable. He helped build the new Evidence Room where and having a conference/Training Room available as well.
