Bloomfield R-XIV School Board Swears in Two New Board Members

Bloomfield, MO - Bloomfield Reorganized School District XIV held their April meeting on Monday evening.

Board Secretary Justin Bell, was on hand to swear in the two new board members, David Clary and Brooke Smith.

The Board also elected officers. President is Brad Warner, Vice President is Cecil Haley, Treasurer is Bill Robinson, and Secretary is Justin Bell.

The Board approved the minutes of the Board Meeting of March 14, 2022.

The Board set the Budget Workshop Date and the May Board meeting for Noon on May 11th. Budget Workshop usually takes about two hours and the Board meeting will follow.

There was some discussion on the Agriculture Shop expansion. Around 1,800 square feet will be added and they will possibly put that out for bid in August. They are still working on the details. Also there was discussion of the Bus Garage. They hope to get 9 buses at a time in the garage. Currently they have 10 buses in operation.

Toni Hill, Superintendent, stated that there were two summer projects on the agenda. Workroom remodels for all three buildings and will be paid for by a Teacher Retention Grant and the Central Office will have some updates as well.

The superintendent gave her report on a few budget bills in the legislature and HB 1552 as well. They then entered into Executive Session to discuss employment matters.
