In Memory of Darrell Gene Browning

Darrell Gene Browning, a dedicated owner operator dump truck driver of Browning Trucking, has sadly passed away at the age 65 in Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Born on April 6, 1959, in Advance, Missouri, Darrell leaves behind a legacy of hard work and passion for his profession.

Throughout his career, Darrell worked tirelessly as a dump truck driver, showcasing his strong work ethic and commitment to providing for his family. He was known for his reliability and dedication to his craft, earning the respect and admiration of those around him.

Outside of work, Darrell found solace in various hobbies and interests. He had a profound love for horses and spent many happy years owning and riding them. Additionally, he enjoyed spending time fishing, hunting deer, tending to his yard, and savoring breakfast at the Coffee Shop every morning.

Darrell is survived by his beloved family members: his son Miles Browning and wife Chasity of Wappapello, Missouri; daughter Amanda Sides and husband Steven of Dexter, Missouri; granddaughters, Kerigan Jones of Dexter and Izabella Browning of Wappapello; as well as his sister Judy Allen and husband Darrel of Bloomfield, Missouri, two nephews, Darren Matthew Allen and Jason Todd Allen. He was preceded in death by his parents Hubert Parker and Laura Mae (Daniels) Browning.

The visitation in memory of Darrell Gene Browning will be held at Watkins Funeral Homes in Puxico on May 13th from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM. A Funeral Service will take place on May 14th at 11:00 AM with interment immediately following in the Fagan Cemetery.

Darrell will be remembered for not only his professional dedication but also for the love he shared with his family and the joy he found in simple pleasures. His presence will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who knew him.
