In Memory of Raymond Galbraith

DECEMBER 27TH 2024 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Raymond Galbraith

Raymond Galbraith, son of Jeremie Oliver Sr. and Stephanie Galbraith Oliver of Bernie, Missouri, was born on January 26, 1995, in Granite City, Illinois, and departed this life on December 17, 2024, at his residence in Bernie, Missouri, at the age of 29 years.

Raymond was a handyman and enjoyed working on cars. He attended Southeast Missouri State University on a band scholarship and could play any instrument. He enjoyed origami, collecting coins and spending time with his dog, Violet. Raymond was a loving son, big brother, uncle, nephew and brother-in-law and will be greatly missed.

Along with his parents, he is survived by his sister, Autumn Lee and husband Austin of Dexter, Missouri, by his brother, Jeremie Oliver Jr. and wife Jasmine of Dexter, Missouri; and by four nieces, Logan Jarrett, Vivian Fowler, Zealynn Oliver, and Olivia Oliver; and by his nephew, Bellamy Oliver.

Along with the miracle of birth and life, nothing is certain but death. Then like a plague the grim reappear arrives at your front doorstep to steal your last breath with no remorse nor even a chance to attest. Whether it's the loss of the unborn child or the expected arrival of the elder's last day, death's grip knows no bounds in size, sex, race or age. Although the deceased may have been sprout and young, his life was surely ponderous, adventurous, and fun. Now that he is to be laid to rest in his friends and family one would be wise to invest. Though his physical being may be deceased, he will forever live in our heart like a magical masterpiece. So let us all now pray that he may forever rest in peace. Amen

No services are planned.
