2025 DHS Baseball Team Senior Night Featuring Nolan Alford

The Dexter High School Baseball team honored their five seniors with a special senior night on Wednesday, April 23, 2025 at East City Park.

Nolan Alford is the son of Bobby and Angela Alford.

He has been a Bearcat Baseball player all four years of high school.

His future plans are to go to Evangel University and play football while pursuing a degree in Business.

Nolan's favorite memory from high school baseball was beating Notre Dame his junior year.

His words of advice to future Bearcat baseball players is to always try to be your best version and enjoy the process.
