In Memory of Cyrus Rhett Noe

MAY 26TH 2025 BY DEE LOFLIN

In Memory of Cyrus Rhett Noe

Cyrus Rhett Noe was born on December 24, 2024, and departed this life on May 22, 2025, at just four months old. Affectionately known as “Spanky,” Cyrus brought more joy in his short time than many do in a lifetime. He adored his little blue kick-and-play mat and loved watching his big brother, Colben, play tractors on the floor beside him. His bright smile could soften even the hardest of hearts, and his giggle—sweet and contagious—was a sound of pure delight.

Though his time on Earth was brief, Cyrus was a dear and beloved child whose presence left a lasting impact. His memory will be cherished forever by all who were fortunate enough to be touched by his life.

Though we ask God why, we know that His plan is much grander than ours. He was much too precious for this cruel world. We are convinced God gave us one of His angels to give us a short glimpse of what joy a lifetime in heaven will look like.

He is survived by his loving parents, Chase and Caitlyn Noe of Essex, MO, and his big brother, Colben Chase Noe.

He is also survived by his grandparents: Jonas Noe of Dexter, MO, and Keith and Sabra Mayberry of Essex, MO.

Aunts and uncles who adored him include: Cayla Mayberry of Essex, MO; Cole Mayberry of Dexter, MO; Blaren Noe of Dexter, MO; Mason and Taylor Noe of Jackson, MO; and Lane and Hannah Below of Panama City, Florida.

His cousins: Makai, Madden and Miller Noe of Jackson, MO, and Collins and Knox Below of Florida.

Great-grandparents include: Dale Mayberry of Essex, MO; Sarah Walpole of Dexter, MO; and Roy and Linda Owens of Valley, Alabama.

Cyrus was preceded in death by his Grandma “JoJo,” Jo Carolyn Noe, and his great-grandmother Joan Mayberry, Jeannine Flowers, and great-grandfather Bill Flowers.

Cyrus is also deeply loved and mourned by a large extended family and many friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Cyrus’s memory to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, an organization dedicated to helping children and families facing the toughest battles. Contributions can be made online at <http://www.stjude.org> or mailed to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.
